Dedicated to
The Defenders of the Border U.S.A.

SOMEWHERE 'LONG THE RIO GRANDE

WORDS AND MUSIC
BY
GEO. H. SAVERY
arranged by FRED W. CLEMENT

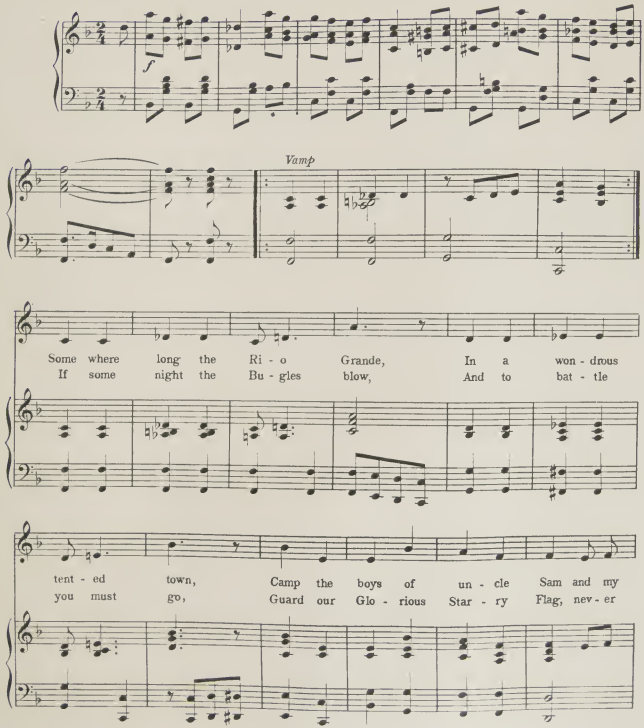
PHOTO. OF CAMP PERSHING. TAKEN AT COLUMBUS, N.M. 1916.

Published and Copyright,
by
GEO. H. SAVERY
WORCESTER, MASS.

"SOME WHERE LONG THE RIO GRANDE"

MARCH SONG

Words and Music by GEORGE H. SAVERY
Arranged by FRED W. CLEMENT



Vamp
Some where long the Ri - o Grande, In a won - drous
If some night the Bu - gles blow, And to bat - tle tent - ed town, Camp the boys of un - cle Sam and my you must go, Guard our Glo - rious Star - ry Flag, nev - er

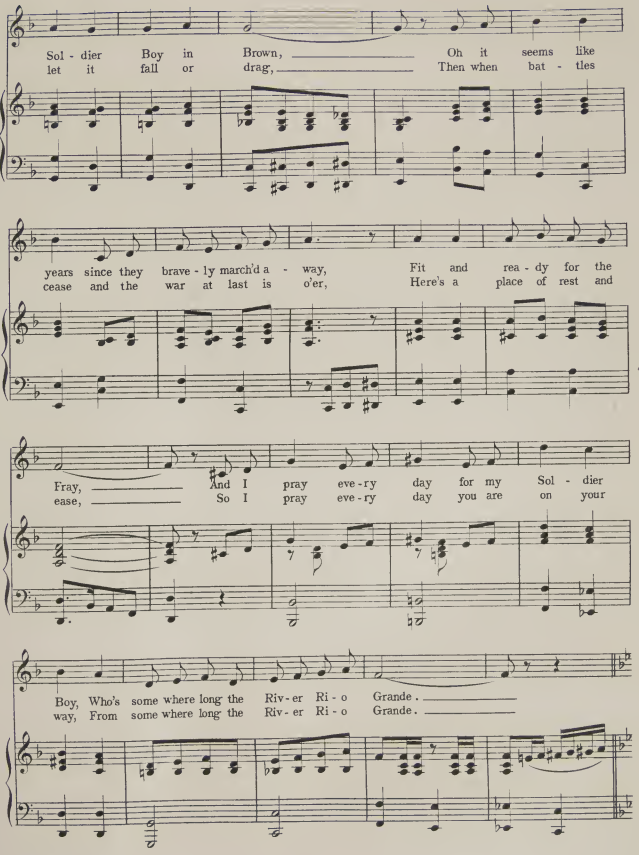
Copyright, 1917, by George H. Savery



Sol - dier Boy in Brown, Oh it seems like let it fall or drag, Then when bat - tles years since they brave - ly march'd a - way, Fit and rea - dy for the cease and the war at last is o'er, Here's a place of rest and Fray, And I pray eve - ry day for my Sol - dier ease, So I pray eve - ry day you are on your Boy, Who's some where long the Riv - er Ri - o Grande. way, From some where long the Riv - er Ri - o Grande.

CHORUS
Come back Sol - dier Boy, Don't you p – ff
hear my heart is call - ing, I am lone - ly and so blue And your moth - ers lone - ly too, I am ev - er dream - ing Sol - dier Boy, Of the day when you'll re - turn When that line of Kha - ki Brown, Comes a swing - ing back to town, I'll be there on hand to 1

2
greet you Sol - dier Boy. Boy.